Inform Your Community Announces Appoints Experienced Business Strategist Aditi Mittal to Board of Directors

New York, NY — Inform Your Community, a non-profit dedicated to fostering civic engagement and community education, today announced the appointment of Aditi Mittal to its Board of Directors. Mittal brings over a decade of executive leadership experience spanning business strategy, engineering, and creative technology.

Currently a senior leader at Amazon, Mittal has managed multi-billion-dollar business portfolios while bridging the gap between complex technological systems and human-centered solutions. She holds an MBA from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth and a background in engineering.

Beyond her corporate leadership, Mittal is a passionate advocate for community connection, art, and accessibility in education. As an investor in a local paint and sip art studio, she actively supports creative spaces designed to bring people together, directly addressing the modern challenges of social isolation and the growing loneliness epidemic.

"Aditi's unique blend of high-level business experience and her deep passion for creative expression makes her an invaluable addition to our leadership team," said Anastacia Kurylo, Chief Executive Officer at Inform Your Community. "Her belief that art and shared human experiences can spark meaningful dialogue aligns perfectly with our mission to build more informed, empathetic, and connected communities."

In her new role on the board, Mittal will help guide Inform Your Community's strategic growth, leveraging innovative approaches to education and engagement that go well beyond traditional learning models.

"Creative expression has the extraordinary power to educate, heal, and connect us beyond standard educational frameworks," said Aditi Mittal. "I am thrilled to join the board of Inform Your Community and look forward to using both my technology and community-building experience to help create spaces where people feel truly seen, informed, and connected to one another."
