

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

PEOPLE

- Amal Clooney
- Martha Stewart
- Bryan Stevenson
- Archie Williams
- The Central Park Five

STATS

- return to prison within 3 years
- prisoners make 0.62/hr
- prisoners work 8 hrs/day
- cost of incarceration fee (COIF) $39,158
- 13% Black Americans in U.S. population
- 38% of people in prison are Black

After Planting Justice Garden Program

DATES

- 1821 Auburn Prison Disaster
- 1865 13th Amendment abolishes slavery except as punishment for a crime
- 1971 War on Drugs declared by President Nixon with increased enforcement by President Reagan
- 1982 First Victim Impact Panels introduced by MADD
- 1997 Greenhouse Garden Program on Rikers Island Prison, NY

TERMS

- Formerly Incarcerated
Less offensive than felon, criminal, convict, ex-con
- Justice Reform
systemic changes to the current criminal justice process
- Recidivism
the tendency for reoffending to occur
- Rehabilitation
a set of interventions, usually treatment and training, designed to optimize reintroduction to general society
- Restorative Justice
Focus on repairing the harm caused rather than punitive justice focused on punishing an offense

TAKE ACTION

1. Commit to one Restorative Justice friendly action a week.
2. Share our infographic.
3. Familiarize yourself with some of the people discussed at innocenceproject.org.
4. Research how prisoners are integrated back into a community.
5. Correct the narrative when someone stereotypes.