

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

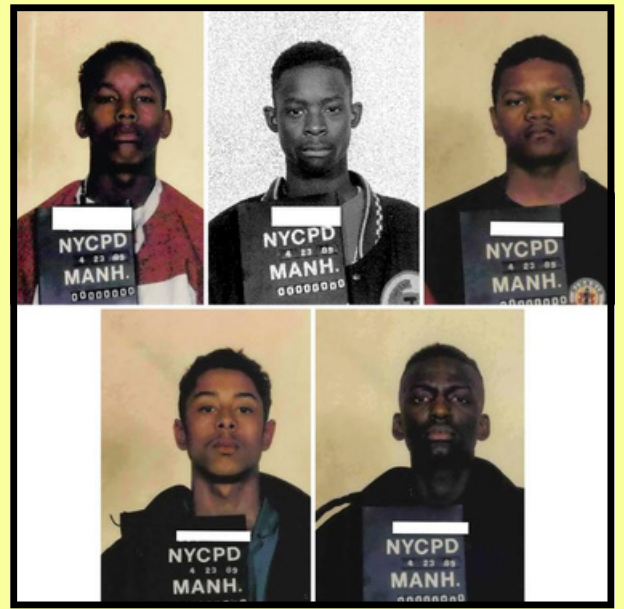

Amal Clooney

Martha Stewart

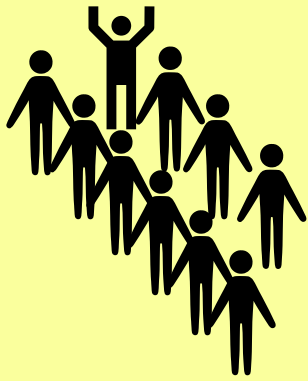

Bryan Stevenson

The Central Park Five

PEOPLE

return to prison within 3 years

After Planting Justice Garden Program

STATS

prisoners make 0.62/hr prisoners work 8 hrs/day

cost of incarceration fee (COIF)
$39,158

13% Black Americans in U.S. population
38% of people in prison are Black

DATES

1865
13th Amendment abolishes slavery except as punishment for a crime

1982
First Victim Impact Panels introduced by MADD

1821
Auburn Prison Disaster

1971
War on Drugs declared by President Nixon with increased enforcement by President Reagan

1997
Greenhouse Garden Program on Rikers Island Prison, NY

TERMS

Formerly Incarcerated

Less offensive than felon, criminal, convict, ex-con

Justice Reform

systemic changes to the current criminal justice process

Recidivism

the tendency for reoffending to occur

Rehabilitation

a set of interventions, usually treatment and training, designed to optimize reintroduction to general society

Restorative Justice

Focus on repairing the harm caused rather than punitive justice focused on punishing an offense

TAKE ACTION

1. Commit to one Restorative Justice friendly action a week.
2. Share our infographic.
3. Familiarize yourself with some of the people discussed at innocenceproject.org.
4. Research how prisoners are integrated back into a community.
5. Correct the narrative when someone stereotypes.

Share widely.
Not for commercial use.

INFORM YOUR COMMUNITY
WWW.INFORMYOURCOMMUNITY.ORG

